Ontario Society of Occupational Therapists

ONTARIO SOCIETY OF OCCUPATIONAL THERAPISTS
HONOURARY LIFE MEMBERSHIP AWARD
CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

DESCRIPTION

Members of the Ontario Society of Occupational Therapists have the opportunity to recognize and honour a colleague who has rendered distinguished and longstanding service to the profession of occupational therapy or to the Society (OSOT) with a designation of an Honourary Life Membership. The intent of this award is to acknowledge the outstanding contributions of individuals who have helped shape the development of occupational therapy in Ontario and/or our professional association! The Honourary Life Membership Award may be awarded each year to one eligible individual who is a current or past member of OSOT.

OSOT invites members to nominate colleagues who have made significant contributions!

NOMINATION CRITERIA

- Individuals who are current or past members of OSOT are eligible for nomination
- A minimum of 3 nominators supporting each nomination is required. Each nominator must be a member in good standing of the Ontario Society of Occupational Therapists.

The Nomination Form outlines the specific elements recognized by the award.

Nominators must provide pertinent information and examples of their nominee's overall contributions to OSOT and/or the profession of occupational therapy in Ontario. This information will demonstrate the nominee's sustained and outstanding leadership and/or contribution in at least two areas which may include; client programs, academic endeavours, management, government relations, leadership, policy development, community development or team/ task force involvement.

NOMINATION INSTRUCTIONS

Nomination Forms will be made available to all members of OSOT via e-mail and will be posted on the OSOT website. Complete the nomination form in detail and forward the completed Form with summary documentation of your nominee's contributions.
