

Acupuncture Canada's Foundations of Anatomical Acupuncture (AA1)

Start your acupuncture training and certification with Acupuncture Canada. Our program combines online learning with practical hands-on workshops taught in small groups. We'll help you to improve treatment outcomes and grow your practice.

Registration is open for 2019 courses starting in spring or fall. You can choose between:

- London (online start date of March 4, 2019 with onsite April 26-28) or
- Toronto (online start date of August 26, 2019 with onsite October 18-20).

What do our students say?

- "Instructors were great and the course was well organized."
- "It is a fantastic treatment. I want to incorporate it more into my practice."

Acupuncture Canada's Core Program starts with the Foundations of Anatomical Acupuncture Course (AA1). You'll be introduced to anatomical acupuncture with a multimedia rich 6-week online component that expands your evidence-based knowledge of acupuncture and prepares you for a three-day intensive hands-on workshop where you'll work in small groups with expert faculty. The combination of the online and the onsite experience provides quality skills training to prepare you for immediate clinical practice.

Course fee: $1,285 plus tax
