Everybody loves to hate on insurance. And the combination of paperwork, technical policy wordings, and the vague feeling that you're being deceived certainly doesn't help insurance's reputation. Does it have to be so complicated? It doesn't!

If you've ever been confused as to what exactly you're getting when it comes to your professional liability insurance policy, then save your seat for our exclusive webinar today.

Join Andrew Spencer in an interactive session that will cover the following:

- Why does COTO make it a requirement that all OTs have professional liability insurance?
- What should I do if a complaint is made against me?
- Do students working for clinics need to have their own professional liability insurance policy?
- Risk management strategies.
- And more!
