provided in collaboration with the Workplace Safety and Insurance
Board (WSIB)!

Presented by:

Janet Gleason, OT Reg. (Ont.)

Professional Practice Leader, Occupational Therapy, Health Services Branch (WSIB)

The Role of Occupational Therapy with the Workplace Safety Insurance Board

Join our presenter on as she:

- Provides a brief history of the WSIB
- Describes the role of the OT within the WSIB, more specifically:
  - Within the Serious Injury Service
  - As Independent Living Consultants
  - As Work Transition Specialists
  - As Return To Work Specialists
  - As Quality Management Specialists
  - As Healthy Wellness Centre

Join our presenter again as she engages participants to:

- Understand the role and opportunities for OTs as external providers
  - For example, these can be community-based OTs who are on the WSIB 'Preferred Provider List':
    - Conducting Independent Living Assessments
    - Consulting for Driver Rehabilitation
    - Providing Therapeutic Interventions
    - Working in Programs of Care
    - Working in Specialty Clinics, or Regional Evaluation Centres

Target Audience:

The target audience for these webinars are community-based OTs, recent graduates, or student occupational therapists who wish to learn more about the role of OT and potential opportunities for OTs working with the WSIB.

About our presenter:

Janet Gleason has been working in occupational therapy professional practice since the late 1990's and has been in this role at the WSIB since 2008. Janet's clinical background includes cognitive rehabilitation, physical rehabilitation, wheelchair, mobility and home safety equipment prescription, and in-home assessments. Her non-clinical background includes research and teaching.

We hope you enjoy this programming!
