

OCCUPATIONAL Therapy

Do you want to work with people?

Are you interested in a challenging and exciting career?

Do you want to be a health professional?

Occupational Therapy is a regulated health profession that focuses on independence in everyday living by assisting individuals to: maintain ability, develop skills, restore function and promote health.

what

Restore function and independence in daily activities.

Modify the environment where one lives, works, learns and socializes.

Fabricate and prescribe assistive equipment.

Promote participation in meaningful occupations

where

Community-based programs

General hospitals

Schools

Correctional facilities

Private practice

Mental health facilities

Children's treatment centers

Clients' homes and work places who

Infants

Children

Adolescents

Adults

Seniors

Individuals with impairments and disabilities

more

Want to find out more?

www.caot.ca

www.otworks.ca

www.osot.on.ca

www.ouac.on.ca/orpas